Quiz score 10-14

AVOIDER

Avoiders stay busy with work, family obligations, travel schedules, friendships, and ever-increasing distractions. It's possible this has been your only love mindset up until now, or it came as a result of a past heartbreak or trauma.

You might publicly acknowledge at times that you want love, but often you downplay your romantic desires. Going years without dating is common for Avoiders.

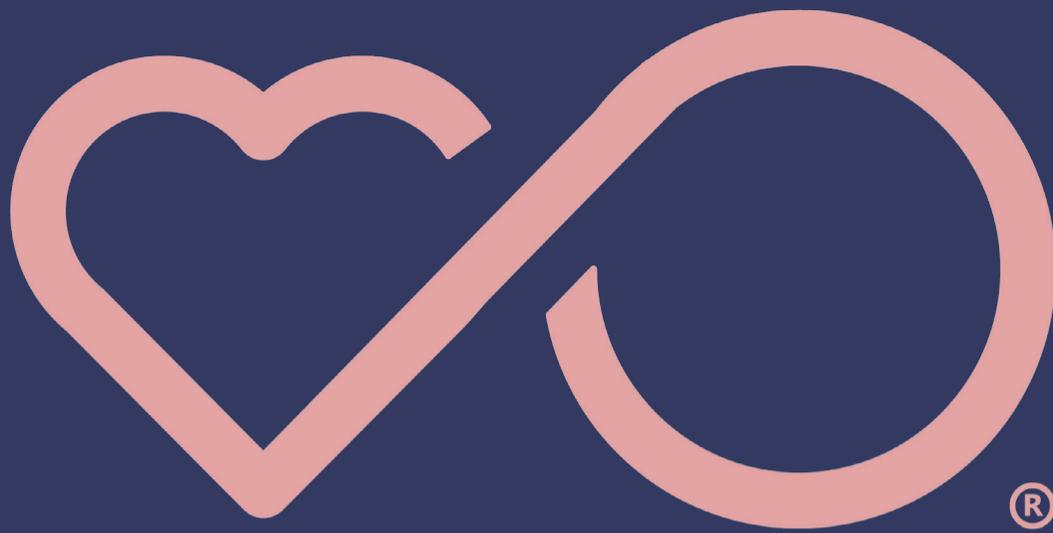

You're most likely considered to be a total catch to those who know you well. You have so much love to give, and your biggest obstacle to the love you want is how you think about love.

YOUR NEW MANTRA:

I open myself up to give and receive love more deeply than I ever thought possible.

Quiz score 14-24

LOOPER

Loopers usually have active love lives, though they mostly feel unsatisfied romantically.

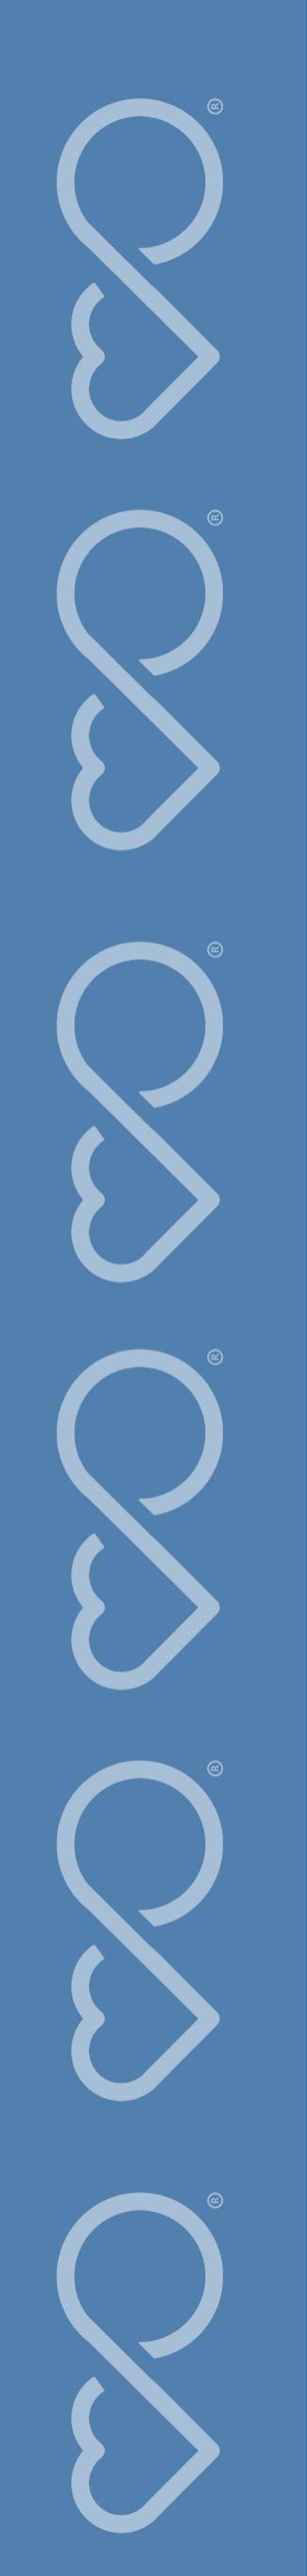

Loopers often have trouble breaking their dating habits and patterns. Sometimes you don't even see that you have a pattern. Your tendency is to keep dating, meeting more people and doing the same things over and over again.

Anyone can get “stuck in a loop”, regardless of your relationship history or experience. And anyone can get out of the loop when you're ready to make different dating choices!

YOUR NEW MANTRA:

My history is not my destiny. I have the power to break old patterns and attract a loving relationship.

Quiz score 25-33

SURFER

Surfers are looking for love, and usually go where the “tide” takes them on their love journey. This means they can get lucky and find a great match, and they can also “wipe out” by giving too much of a chance to the wrong people.

Surfers have no trouble finding people to date and they usually assume they’ll “know it when they see it” when it comes to love, which can lead to overvaluing instant chemistry. Surfers might have a type, but it has more to do with a collection of specific character or personality traits than physical appearance.

When surfers get clear on their relationship needs and pay attention to early red flags, they can easily attract the love they want!

YOUR NEW MANTRA:

It is safe for me to give and receive lasting love with a compatible partner.

Quiz score 34-40

SAILOR

Sailors take control of their love journey, knowing that it's only a matter of time until they meet their special someone.

Which doesn't mean you've haven't had your share of disappointment and heartache, because you have. It might have taken a long time, but Sailors have perfected the ability to heal and bounce back from heartbreak.

While it's smooth sailing in terms of your ability to find the partners you want, that doesn't mean all is perfect in Sailorland. Because you're so good at getting the person you want, make sure you're not setting your sights too low.

YOUR NEW MANTRA:

I can effortlessly attract the relationship of my dreams.
